

OBITUARY: Clyde Wright, 73, died Sunday at the Lamert Hospital after a long illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Martin-Azbell Funeral Home. The Rev. Harry Clifton officiated. Burial was in the Princeton Cemetery.

Mr Wright was born Oct 15, 1887, southwest of Princeton, a son of Elijah and Lucinda Wright. He never married. Leona Wright of the home, and Mrs Isaac Mason, of Princeton, and her three brothers, Charles L. Wright, Clarence E. Wright and Lloyd M. Wright. He and his sister, Miss Leona Wright, lived in a log house which was built in 1843 by James Weldon, one of the first settlers of Mercer County. Last year they tore the house down and moved into a new one.

Mr Wright, his brothers and sisters were the third generation of the Wright family to make maple syrup on that farm. Their grandfather, James Wright, began making syrup in 1871 in a grove of trees a mile east. The Wrights children helped with the syrup making from about 200 trees until 1958.

Mr Wright was member of the Antioch Baptist Church.

He leaves two sisters, Miss Leona Wright of the home, and Mrs Isaac Mason, of Princeton, and her three brothers, Charles L. Wright, Clarence E. Wright and Lloyd M. Wright.
