

OBITUARY: Miss Leona Wright, 72, died at her home southwest of Princeton, Wednesday of last week, apparently of a heart attack. She was found by her brother, Lloyd Wright, and Robert Fir.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Martin and Azbell Funeral Home. The Rev. Harry Clifton of Chillicothe officiated. Burial was in the Princeton Cemetery.

Miss. Wright, a daughter of Elijah T. and Lucinda Wright, was born June 26, 1892 on the Wright farm seven miles southwest of Princeton and attended the Maple Grove school.

Miss Wright was a member of the Antioch Baptist Church. She is survived by three brothers, Clarence Wright and Lloyd Wright, both of Princeton and Charles Wright of Lucerne; a number of nieces and nephews including Mrs. Genevieve Stockman of Mercer whom she helped rear. She also helped rear Mrs. Stockman's broth, the late Frank Wright who died in 1938.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright of Lucerne, Mrs and Mrs. Laverne Johnson and daughter, Deborah, Mr and Mrs Owen Wright and Leona, Mr and Mrs Dennis Norris, Mr and Mrs William P. Fair, all of Trenton, Mrs Roxie Boxley of Kansas City, Roy Lee Mason of Moline, Ill., Mrs Madge Hamilton of Cainsville.

Mr and Mrs Elmer Lee Nickell, Debby and Linda, Mr and Mrs Wynne Stockman, Michael and Stephen of Mercer; Mrs C. L. Lusk and Mrs Kelly Stanley both of Liberty and Mrs Leslie Gibson of Modena.