

Clarence Wright, 81, well known farmer died Thursday of last week at Wright Hospital, Trenton. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Martin Azbell Funeral Home. The Rev. Clarence Newby officiated. Burial was in the Princeton Cemetery.

The son of Elijah T. and Lucinda Ann Lusk Wright, he was born in Mercer County, September 28, 1884. He was married to Della Edwards who died November 26, 1952. He married Mrs. Blanch Rockhard December 9, 1959 and she survives. He also attended the Christian Church.

In addition to his wife he leaves four sons, Harold W. Wright of Long Beach, CA, Virgil Wright of Port Orchard, WA, Wesley Wright of Spokane, WA and Eugene Wright of Chicago, IL; two brothers Lloyd Wright of Mercer County, Charles Wright of Lucerne and four stepdaughters, Mrs Hazel Sparks of Bettendorf, Iowa, Mrs Lorene Conwell of Casper, WY, Mrs Howard Hunter of Princeton and Mrs Jack Brown of Millgrove, one stepson Cecil Rockhold of Davenport, Iowa and ten grandchildren.