Your Friend

David Ashcroft

Princeton N. J. March 1871

Friend Lizzie

The seas may rise
The mountains may fall
But my love for you
Will live through it all Ever your friend

Remember me when death
shall close,
My eye lids in this last repose,
When evening freezes gently
wasc,
The long green grass above
my grave,

Grace Brock

May your mind be deep as ocean
And your sorrows as light as foam
May you ever have friends in adversity
Make heaven your eternal home
D. Miller

Princeton Mo March 31. 89

Long May you live
and happy May you be from one who wishes you well in all that is right

Orin A Johnson

Kind friend.

Princeton, Mo. July. 20. 1889.

May heaven protect and keep thee
From every sorrow free,
and grant thee every blessing,
In my warmest wish for thee.

Orena C. Johnson.

think of me long

think of me ever

think of the fun

We have had taggart

from a friend

Lizzie Snider

This Lizzie may be John's wife. Based on the "yours ever" salutation along with the handwriting differing than the other Lizzie on the previous slide and is conjecture.

Friend Lizzie,

Long may you live

Happy may you be

As the fond wishes

Of a true friend to thee

As ever
